

CHRISTA DYSON

'I became an incomplete C4/5 following a spinal stroke in 1993. From being completely paralysed I went on to become an unsteady walker able to cover short distances though no hand function ever returned. I was pleased to be elected as a Trustee in 2012, and I am keen to communicate the value of adaptive aid technology in its myriad of different forms in promoting better personal independence for SCI individuals'.